

Assembly groups

From design to final assembly – we are your partner for assembly groups!

- We advise our customers, right from the start of a project, through to its conclusion. From the very first scratch we have the technical know-how.
- We manufacture complex and sophisticated components. From prototyping to batch production we guarantee utmost flexibility, expertise and reliability
- We handle all machinable materials, and are particularly experienced in processing high alloy steels, titanium and nonstandard materials. We have the ideal machinery modern equipment and skilled workers to enable us to quickly and precisely manufacturing of complex parts.
- We are certified to DIN EN ISO 9001 and DIN EN ISO 9100 (aerospace) and by DIN EN ISO 13485 (Medical Products) certified which ensures quality at the highest standards for your company
- Besides machining sophisticated components we also administer heat treatments and surface technologies through competent sub-suppliers: With Beutter you will receive your complex components from just one source!

10 mm